

2) Repo Man

David M Regen © 1995

Me ¹ and my little woman, lived ⁴ on the edge of ¹ town
We ¹ had ourselves a double-wide, in ² bliss we could be ⁵ found
But ¹ then one day temptation, gave ⁴ me a rovin' eye
For a ¹ custom painted pickup truck, that ⁵ I just had to ¹ buy
Repo ⁴ man ... repo ¹ man ...
I'm gonna ¹ stay one step ahead of him if I ⁵ can
Repo ⁴ man ... repo ¹ man ...
If you can't ¹ help me Lord don't ⁵ help that repo ¹ man

I ¹ treated her so sweetly, we ⁴ went out every ¹ night
I ¹ fixed her up with monster wheels and ² every kind of ⁵ light
Gave ¹ her the biggest boom box, so ⁴ I could feel the ¹ beat
And ¹ everybody heard us driving ⁵ up and down the ¹ street

I ¹ came home late one night and found a ⁴ note upon the ¹ door
Said ¹ get back in your pickup, you don't ² live here any ⁵ more
Go ¹ buy your truck a Gem top, 'cause ⁴ that will be your ¹ home
And ¹ you will meet my lawyer when we ⁵ come to pick your ¹ bones

My ¹ ex she got the double-wide, the ⁴ judge he made me ¹ mad
He ¹ gave here allimony that took ² everything I ⁵ had
So ¹ I can't make the payments to the ⁴ finance compan¹y
And ¹ now we move from place to place, my ⁵ pickup truck and ¹ me

2) Repo man was evoked by seeing and hearing the pickup truck described in the song driving east on Charlotte Av followed a minute later by what could have been a repo truck.
