/A/D /G D/F# /Em /Em/A
 (D We've been to G gether for so D long G)
 (D Seemed like G love was meant to D be G)
 (A Now I Em don't know how I'll A face it D/F# all a G lone)
 (A You D/F# without G me C9 ain't G/B easy to ex D plain)
 (/G /D /G)

D Yeah I G knew I'd have to D smile G
 D Yeah I G knew I'd have to D laugh G
 A Yeah I Em knew I'd have to A finally D/F# say your G name
 A You D/F# without G me C9 ain't G/B easy to ex D plain

/G /D /G
 D Guess I'll G have to tell my D friends G
 D Guess love G wasn't real e D nough G
 A Guess I Em could just tell 'em A everythings o D/F# k G
 A You D/F# without G me C9 ain't G/B easy to ex D plain

It ain't A easy to explain how a love that seemed so strong could still be G wrong
 And it's A hard to understand how a Bm woman and a A/D man could find a C9 place they G/B both l be A7m long and still move A/D on

/G /A/D /G /A/D /G /D/F# /Em /Em/A
 D Yeah I G use to make you D smile G
 D And a G smile could make me D laugh G
 A Yeah I Em knew I'd have to A finally be o D/F# k G
 A You D/F# without G me C9 ain't G/B easy to ex A/D plain
 /G D/F# /Em /Em/A /D

8) Ain't easy to explain was written by my daughter and boyfriend after their friendly, rational breakup. She doesn't make enemies. One day when I was working on the restoration of her 1920s house, her ex-husband was helping me, her new husband was present, and a couple of her interim boyfriends dropped by for a visit. They're all friends.
